Key Responsibilities

- Conduct valuations for business disputes, lost profits, economic damages, and financial distress situations.
- Analyze financial statements, industry data, and market trends to deliver precise and reliable valuation reports.
- Collaborate with legal teams to present findings and provide expert testimony in court or arbitration.
- Engage in business development efforts to expand the firm's valuation services portfolio.

- Stay current with evolving valuation standards and economic damages methodologies.

What Makes You Successful in This Role

- A minimum of 6 years of experience in valuation consulting, including expert witness experience.
- Advanced degree in Finance, Economics, Accounting, or Business (MBA, JD, or PhD preferred).
- Relevant professional designations such as CFA, CPA (ABV or CFF), or CFE are required.
- Proven track record of delivering expert testimony and working closely with legal teams.
- In-depth knowledge of financial modeling, economic damages analysis, and valuation methodologies.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills, with the ability to explain complex financial matters to non-technical audiences.
- Ability to manage multiple projects and deadlines while maintaining the highest quality standards
- Entrepreneurial spirit: You thrive in a fast-paced, high-growth environment, rolling up your sleeves both strategically and tactically to drive results.

Why You'll Love It Here

At ValueScope, you'll enjoy:

- Competitive compensation package with significant growth potential.
- A collaborative and entrepreneurial environment with access to leadership and decision-making.
- Comprehensive benefits including health insurance, retirement plan, bonus, long-term and short-term disability, holidays, PTO, and professional development opportunities.
